Dear Parent/ Carer

Re: National Stand Up Schools' Human Rights Conference

I am delighted to be able to invite your child to this year's National Stand Up Schools' Human Rights Conference. By taking part in this conference, your child will have the opportunity to gain awareness of the lived experience of racism in the UK and examine its impact on people, culture and society. Students will also understand how identity is shaped and assess the role of bias in dealing with difference, helping them to become empowered to challenge racism and take action to promote inclusivity.

The conference will have a series of excellent speakers from the creative arts, education, politics and science on the themes of celebrating identity, inclusivity and challenging inequality. Students will be able to discuss these contemporary issues with other sixth form students from across the country.

The conference is run by an organisation called Beyond This, that provide educational based training for students and teachers, supported by Amnesty International. The Conference will take place at Lytchett Minster School on Tuesday 21st September between 9.30am- 3pm. Students who wish to attend this conference should arrive at the academy at the normal time and they should be back at the academy by 3.30pm, depending on traffic. Furthermore, attendance at this conference is free of charge as Magna Academy will provide transportation by minibus and will cover the cost of attendance.

This conference is ideal for students of Humanities, Social Science subjects or for any Year 12 student as they make the transition to the adult world.

If your child would like to attend, please complete the Google Form found here.

Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

Yours sincerely

Katie Stafford
Assistant Principal
