

A top-down photograph of a breakfast meal. In the upper left, a small white ceramic dish holds a mix of fresh raspberries and blueberries. To the right, a larger white ceramic bowl is filled with creamy porridge, also topped with several raspberries and blueberries. The bowl sits on a light blue, frayed-edge cloth napkin. The background is a light grey textured surface. A green arrow points right from the left edge, and a white arrow points up from the bottom right corner.
